

Departmental Tutoring Services

The following extra tutorial services, beyond assistance and clarification from the course professors during office hours, are offered by the following departments. Some departments and programs can assist students with finding support on an informal case-by-case basis, but do not offer formal tutoring. If a department or program is not listed, please talk with your professors about support or tutoring options. (Note: No department reported a charge for tutoring assistance.)

Biological Sciences (BIOL 120 & 122): Students should first talk with their professors if they need assistance. Several professors assemble lists of volunteer tutors. In addition, walk-in peer tutoring for BIOL 120 and 122 is available in Beeghly Library on Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday from 7:00-9:00 PM. Scheduled appointments are available in the Hobson Science Library in the Schimmel Conrades Science Center (SCSC) on Monday from 11:00 AM-1:00 PM, and Wednesday & Thursday 2:00 – 4:00 PM. To schedule an appointment, visit <https://www.owu.edu/academics/departments-programs/department-of-zoology/resources/departmental-tutoring-program/> and click the link in the middle of the page.

Botany-Microbiology (BOMI): The first line of assistance should be the faculty. Several professors assemble lists of volunteer tutors. Please see the Biological Sciences listing for information about peer tutoring for BIOL 120 and 122.

Chemistry: The Department of Chemistry is pleased to offer Chem Corner, a free tutoring service for General Chemistry (CHEM 110 and 111) students. Sessions will be Monday and Tuesday, 7:00 PM – 9:00 PM, in Beeghly Library 021. Upper level chemistry students should consult the faculty for support and assistance.

Comparative Literature: Formal tutoring is not available, but students are encouraged to consult their professors if they would like assistance or support in their classes.

Classics: Tutoring is available in Latin and Greek. Please see the specific entries for those subjects for more information..

Economics: Omicron Delta Epsilon provides tutoring for Principles of Economics (ECON 110), Research Methods in Economics (ECON 251) and Intermediate Microeconomics (ECON 252). Please contact the Economics Department for a list of current tutors. Students are requested to e-mail the tutors listed at least a day in advance of the tutoring time they desire. Tutors will reply with the specific meeting time and place.

English: Support and feedback on writing are available through the Writing Center. Otherwise, individual faculty members work with students.

Fine Arts: Since faculty members are working in the studios during many non-class hours, they are available to assist students at those times. There is no formal “tutoring” available beyond these informal one-on-one situations. For art history (ART110: Survey of Art History I and ART 111: Survey of Art History II), students should contact Professor Neuman de Vegvar [(740) 368-3603, cndevegv@owu.edu] to arrange contact with potential student tutors.

Geology-Geography: Extra services are not formally available. However, professors will occasionally ask a major to work with an introductory student. For the most part, the department wants students to meet with their professors faculty for assistance.

Greek: Dr. Lee Fratantuono will meet with students on an individual basis for tutoring in Greek. Students may contact Dr. Fratantuono in Slocum Hall 322 or by email. Jake Kirchner is also available to tutor students in Greek. Students may make appointments with Jake via email (jmkirchn@owu.edu) or text (440-666-1119).

Health and Human Kinetics: Faculty in Health and Human Kinetics (HHK) often work individually with students who need tutoring. From time to time the HHK faculty will also arrange for student-led tutoring on an as-needed basis.

History: While no formal tutoring services are offered, faculty members work with students who would like assistance or support in their classes. Students are encouraged to consult their professors to arrange conferences.

Latin: Selena Ross and Dr. Lee Fratantuono offer tutoring in Latin. Students may contact Dr. Fratantuono in Slocum Hall 322 or by email for more information or to make an appointment.

Mathematics and Computer Science: The Missouri Club provides tutoring on a group basis for Math 105, 110, 111, 230, and CS 110 on Thursday evenings from 7:00 to 9:00 pm in the Welch Study Room 016. Additional individual appointment tutoring and walk-in tutoring are available from the Q-Center. The mathematics courses tutored by the Q-Center are the following: Math 104, Math 105, Math 108, Math 110, Math 111, and Math 230. The Q-Center open walk in hours are Monday 4:00 – 6:00 PM and Tuesday, Wednesday, & Thursday, 3:00 – 5:00 PM in Corns 315 (across from the Sagan ARC) and on Tuesday & Thursday 7:00 – 9:00 PM in Beeghly Library. Individual tutoring appointments are available throughout the week; hours vary day to day depending on tutor schedules. Please call 740-368-3925 or stop by the Sagan ARC in Corns 316 to arrange individual appointments. See the Interdepartmental Tutoring Services section below for more details.

Modern Foreign Languages: Tutoring is available for Spanish, French, German, Chinese, Japanese, and Italian on an individual basis in University Hall, room 213. The hours vary Monday through Friday from 10:00 am to 5:00 pm. Tutoring in Japanese is also available on Tuesday from 5:30-7:30 PM and Wednesday 6:30 – 7:30 PM in Beeghly Library in the 3rd floor study room. Ohio Wesleyan University students who are native speakers or excellent speakers provide the tutoring. For further information, please contact Jody Forman at (740) 368-3667.

Music: Tutoring is available for music theory. Students are encouraged to contact their music theory professor to request a tutor. The students will be put in contact with a qualified student tutor.

Philosophy: Tutoring takes place on a personal and individual basis in Philosophy department courses. The first line of help is the faculty, and all students are encouraged to seek help and advice from their professors. Individual and group study sessions are common.

Physics: Tutoring for PHYS 111 and PHYS 116 is available on Monday and Wednesday from 6:00 – 8:00 PM in Beeghly Library, Media Center Room 35.

Psychology: Students are encouraged to seek help and advice from their professors. The Psychology Department offers peer tutoring for PSYC 110. Open hours are Monday & Wednesday, 11:30 AM- 12:30 PM, Tuesday & Thursday, 3:30 – 4:30 PM, and Monday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Sunday, 7:00 – 9:00 PM, on the lower level of Beeghly Library

Religion: The faculty fills the need for tutoring in all departmental courses. Tutoring is by appointment and can be done on a group basis or one-on-one.

Theatre and Dance: The faculty fills the need for tutoring. Faculty often work in rehearsal rooms and shops during non-class hours and can provide quick assistance at those times. Students should talk with their professors to discuss opportunities for support outside the classroom.

Zoology: Tutoring is done on a personal and individual basis in Zoology department courses. The first line of help is the faculty, and all students are encouraged to seek help and advice from their professors. Individual and group study sessions are common. (Please see the listing for Biological Sciences for information about peer tutoring for BIOL 120 and 122.)

The Sagan Academic Resource Center

The Sagan Academic Resource Center (Sagan ARC), located in Room 316 of the R.W. Corns Building, is open from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm, Monday through Friday. To schedule an appointment, call (740) 368-3925 during business hours. The ARC houses the following four Centers:

Academic Skills Center: The Academic Skills Center is staffed by two interns who are senior psychology majors under the direction of Dr. Richard Leavy. They assist students in the areas of time management, note taking, study skills, stress management, and test taking skills. The ASC is open on Monday and Wednesday from 2:00 – 5:00 PM and Tuesday and Thursday from 3:00 – 5:00 PM. However, the staff is willing to schedule appointments at other times that would be more convenient to the student.

The Disabilities Services Center: The Disabilities Services Center promotes access and opportunities for students with disabilities through collaboration with the other Centers in the Sagan Academic Resource Center including, as well as the Office of Academic Advising, Counseling Center, Residential Life, the Wellness Center, and the faculty. The DSC coordinates reasonable academic accommodations and offers learning strategies instruction to provide all students equitable access to an education at Ohio Wesleyan. Bridget C. Goggin, Disabilities Services Coordinator, is available by appointment Monday through Friday from 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM.

The Quantitative Skills Center: The Quantitative Skills Center provides assistance to both individuals and groups in any quantitative area of their studies, as well as GRE preparation. The Q-Center is staffed by professional tutors and peer tutors with advanced mathematics experience. Walk-In Tutoring is offered on Monday 4:00-6:00 PM and Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, 3:00-5:00 PM in Corns 315, and on Tuesday & Thursday 7:00-9:00 PM in Beeghly Library. Individual tutoring appointments are available throughout the week; hours vary day to day depending on tutor schedules. Please call or stop by the Sagan ARC to arrange individual appointments.

The Writing Center: The Writing Center provides one-on-one tutoring and instruction by professional staff and peer consultants. The Writing Center in Corns 316 is open from 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM, Monday through Friday. Walk-in hours are in Beeghly Library, 2nd floor, Tuesday & Thursday, 7:30 – 8:30 PM, and in the lounge in Stuyvesant Hall Sunday & Monday, 7:30 – 8:30 PM. Besides working with students on writing skills and assignments across the curriculum, consultants work with students on resumes, cover letters, and personal statements for graduate and professional schools.
